

Match the vocabulary

Word	Definition
Mammals	a warm-blooded animal with fur or hair on its skin and a skeleton inside its body. Mammal mothers produce milk to feed their babies.
Life span	the length of time that a human, animal, or plant lives or can be expected to live.
Characteristics	something that makes a person or thing different from others.
Prey	an animal that is hunted or caught for food, usually by another animal.
Dense	having parts very close together with little space between.
Unwitting	not aware; unknowing.
Transparent	easily seen through
Intriguing	to draw the strong interest of; puzzle; fascinate.
Adaptation	the act or process of changing or adjusting something to fit in a new role or context.
Elongated	to make longer; lengthen.
Stockpile	to accumulate a large store of.
Carnivore	an animal that eats the flesh of other animals.
Buoyancy	the capacity to float or rise to the top in a liquid or gas
Vulnerable	open to attack or danger.
Blubber	the layer of fat beneath the skin of whales, seals, and other large sea mammals.
Torpor	a state of suspended movement or feeling, as in a dormant animal.
Species	a group of living things that can mate with one another but not with those of other groups.